

Description

Reconstructed the concrete pile foundations and restored pier's architectural elements.

Elements/Goals

- Re-opened this City of Oakland and National Historic Landmark structure, originally built circa 1916
- Reconstructed concrete pile foundations to address structural deficiencies
- Salvaged and restored pier's architectural rails and columns
Replicated and reinstalled ornate light standards

Budget & Funding

$1,900,000 total project costs, including:

- $1,600,000 Measure DD
- $300,000 Proposition 12 State Grant

Status

Project completed 2008

Project Location

18th street pier before

18th street pier after restoration

