

Celebrating Historic Women of Oakland

Saturday, March 31st 10 a.m. to Noon
Mills College, Carnegie Hall, Bender Room

Program

10:00 Gloria Fangon-Hitz: Co-founder of POWER, graduated Mills 1980, Caldecott broker associate: Welcome and introduction.

10:15 Annalee Allen, Oakland historian: Historic Oakland women:

Delilah Beasley
1871-1934

Ina Coolbrith
1841-1928

Julia Morgan
1872-1957

Aurelia Reinhardt
1877-1948

Gertrude Stein
1874-1946

10:35 Priya Kandaswamy, Professor, Mills College Women's Studies Program: The history of women's studies.

10:55 Break for light refreshment.

11:10 Molly Murphy McGregor, president and founder of the National Women's History Project

11:30 Isadora Duncan as a "famous" Oakland woman, performed by Lois Flood.

Isadora Duncan
1877-1927

11:50 Lenore Gallin, Professor, Diablo Valley College Women's Studies Program introducing the conclusion of the documentary video of the First National Women's Conference: "Sisters of 77"

This event is part of the series:

A Century of Empowered Women – Let's Keep Making History, presented by

- ◆ Progressive Oakland Women for Empowerment and Reform, (POWER) in cooperation with
- ◆ American Association of University Women, Oakland-Piedmont
- ◆ League of Women Voters, Oakland
- ◆ National Women's History Project